Management Buy-Out of Icegrade Limited

Magus Partners has advised Tony Bygraves on the MBO of the group, which trades as The MRFS Group. The transaction was backed by a private investor and the strategy is to develop the group by acquisition.

MRFS is a long-established and leading independent player in the South East in the security systems marketplace and is an ISA NACOSS Gold company. Turnover is over £5m and there is a significant maintenance base.

The group specialises in electronic fire and security solutions including Home Security Systems and Business Security Systems that incorporate the latest security technology supported by a high level of customer service and professional support.

Terms were not disclosed.

Further information about MRFS Group can be found at www.mrfsgroup.com.
